ABOUT INTERIM EDUCATION

Interim Education is intended for those presently engaged in interim ministry and those inquiring about this ministry. Committee on Ministry members and Presbytery Staff Persons with responsibility for congregations in transition will also find the education helpful.

Basic Interim Education consists of 60 contact hours plus a Practicum. The contact hours are divided equally between two Residency Weeks – Week I (30 hours) and Week II (30 hours) separated by a Practicum which combines reflection on, and experience in, some aspect of interim ministry.

MALT offers education for both Weeks I & II. Participants must complete both Residency Week I and all Practicum assignments before taking part in Residency Week II. Those who complete the first week of basic education at another site must complete all MALT Practicum assignments prior to attending Residency Week II.

We offer a full thirty (30) hours of education for each week. If you desire to receive a Statement of Completion for this event, you must actively participate in all sessions in their entirety (30 contact hours).

RESIDENCY WEEK I

Participants will be introduced to and invited to reflect on:

- A theological and biblical context for interim ministry.
- Leadership for the congregation in transition.

- The dynamics of the interim period utilizing integrated learning experiences from their own ministry contexts.
